Application

1. Do I, when a need arises, think first to call a home group leader or pastor before crying out to God?
2. Do I neglect my personal pursuit of God in devotions and study and rely on meetings to be spiritually fed?
3. Do I view the pastors as my foremost source of counseling and comfort rather than the one who is called the Wonderful Counselor and Comforter?
4. Do I resent a leader's lack of availability when the throne of grace is always open to those who need mercy and help?
5. Is decision making difficult because of fear of what leaders would think of me, rather than humbly pursuing their counsel and earnestly crying out to God for help.
